

When _____ came to Boys Town he/she hadn't really experienced a/an _____

Person in Room

_____ family dinner. In fact, if it weren't for a/an _____ call to

Adjective

Adjective

the Boys Town Hotline, he/she might not have ever had one at all.

Tonight, though, he/she was really _____ because his/her Family

Adjective

Teachers had ordered pizza from Godfather's, and he/she couldn't wait to take a/an _____ slice of his/her favorite flavor, _____ . But

Adjective

Noun

before he/she _____ wolfed down some _____ ,

Adverb

Adjective

_____ pizza, he/she was asked how his/her day went at school.

Noun

"It was ok, I guess," he/she said. My best friend _____ and I got in

Name

trouble for _____ in class, but other than that, everything was really

Verb ending in "ING"

_____ ." He/she then _____ a slice of _____ pizza and

Adjective

Past Tense Verb

Adjective

_____ in his/her _____ .

Past Tense Verb

Noun

He/she then looked around the table and _____ , realizing that he/she had found a true family and a true home for the first time in his/her life.

Past Tense Verb

"I really _____ you guys," he/she blurted out suddenly. "Aww, that's sweet," his/her Family Teacher replied. "We _____ you too!"

Verb

Verb

This week, _____ planned out our meal. They made a list, went to the

Family Member

_____ , and bought all the groceries including _____ to

Place

Plural Noun

make for dinner. Once we had all the groceries, _____ cooked the for us

Family Member

to eat. It looked _____ and smelled _____ ! Right before

Noun

Adjective

dinner, _____ helped by putting plates, _____ , and

Adjective

Family Member

_____ on the table.

Plural Noun

As everyone settled in to start eating, _____ started the conversation

Family Member

by asking everyone what their favorite food was. _____ raised their

Family Member

_____ and exclaimed, "I love _____ ."

Body Part

Adjective

Plural Noun

When dinner was over, everyone took their _____ to the sink to be washed. _____ loaded the rest of the dishes into the _____ .

Noun

Family Member

Noun

After all the cleaning was done, the family talked about what tasks they had enjoyed doing most to make dinner happen. Since it's helpful to talk to with others about dinner time, some questions they asked their friends were:

What are your favorite _____ to eat?

Plural Noun

Do you have any other helpful tips?

When they share online, they use the hashtag #AtTheTableSundaySuppers to find other talking about _____ dinners.

Adjective